BRIGHTON BEACH RACING.

CRESSINA RUNS AWAY FROM GOOD RACERS IN THE CHIEF CONTEST.

Fore Scores in a Canter-Monocle Defeats Trash -This Afternoon's Racing the Last of the Meeting.

New York, July 28.—The last day but one of the Brighton Beach summer meeting was marked by a surprisingly large attendance. The fine weather, attractive card and the desire of the local racing contingent to make the most of the opportunity left them to enjoy their favorite sport before it shifts to Saratoga, were probably the chief contributing factors to this encouraging state of affairs. The most pretentious race on the card was the fourth, a handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, in which seven horses of zood class participated. It was won all the way in fast time by the marvelously improved Cressina. The Joyner mare was the medium of a well-planned betting coup. J. H. McCormick has saddled three winners for his friend, Joyner, within the past week—Cressina. Homecrest and Cairngorm—but lost the last named in a selling race.

Almost any price was cheerfully accepted about Fore, Crack Shot, Cressina and Traveller, and not one of this successful quartette of winners gave their backers a moment's uneasiness in the running of their respective races. The only upset of the day developed in the closing race, when Monocle disposed of his opponents, including Trash, the 1 to 2 favorite, with ridiculous ease. Sweet was criticised for laying out of the race in the early stages with the favorite, but the Coulter filly never had a chance to beat the winner, which is the most improved horse in training. It is said that John F. Schorr has won a competency on Monocle since he began his winning career on the turf.

Easton, the winner of the third race, is a full-brother of the famous Reliable, owned by the late William C. Whitney. He cost a fabulous sum as a race horse.

Obert pulled up very lame.

Jockey McCarthy was set down for two days by the starter.

George Odom acquired Nimbus and Traveller at private sale this afternoon. It is said that Eddie McDonald is the real owner of the Kelso Stable for which the former great jockey is trainer.

C. T. Henshall has just returned from a week's solourn at Saratoga. He reports the conditions favorable and encouraging.

BIG BATCH OF INDICTMENTS RETURNED.

Kings County Grand Jury Indicts Thirty-Seven Alleged Violators of Betting Laws.

leged Violators of Betting Laws.

New York, July 28.—The Kings County grand jury today banded down forty-one indictments against the men arrested in the race track crusade. Subsequently Magistrate Tighe, in the Adams street police court, had before him forty-six men who had been arrested at the track, thirty-seven of whom here discharged by the magistrate because the indictments found against them took their cases out to the police court's jurisdiction. The other eight were held by Magistrate Tighe for a further hearing this afternoon. Besides the forty-six alleged violators of the anti-betting law who were arraigned together, three others were held on the same charge by Magistrate Tighe for further examination on July 30. Although but thirty-seven alleged book makers were indicted today, in three cases the grand jury by plural indictments brought the number up to forty-one. The thirty-eight men surrendered themselves after learning of the charges and were arraigned before Judge Dike, in the county court. Through their counsel they entered a plea of not guilty and were paroled in the custody of the attorney's office. Ball was fixed at $5,000 in each case, which was given in every 'nstance. Charles McDermott appeared as counsel for Joseph Vendig, and Jacob Ellperin represented the remaining thirty-six. The defendants were: Joseph Vendig, Edward Ellis, Nicolass Muller, Frank Carlton, Joseph Leckowitz, Charles Ballinger, Oscar Mauker, Otto Coan, Lester Lemmon, Harry Ramsdell, William Kennedy, Harry Myers, Henry Fleischman, Julius Fries, Charles E. King, Harry McGrath, Michael Kessell, Joseph Clair, William Beardall, Louis Herrick, Norbett Hart. Samuel Goldstein, Henry Kline, Jacob Newman, Louis Zerwick, William Klauber, Edward Harry McGrath, Michael Kessell, Joseph Clair, William Beardall, Michael Kessell, Joseph Clair, W

"Wait and see," he said. "It will cause a sensation" in was intimated that all the members of the Jockey Club. Sheriff Hobley and Police Commissioner Bingham will be assailed.

Charles Mahony, manager of the Hoffman House cafe, was arrested today and arraigned before Judge Denel and held in $1,000 bail for trial on a charge of violating the anti-betting law, in that he accepted $60 to be placed as a bet on a horse at the trighton Beach track. The arrest was made on a karrant issued by District Attorney Jerone. Mahony had previously been discharged on the same charge for lack of evidence by Magistrate Wahle,

MATHEWS OUTFIT GOING TO THE COURTS.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 28.—Dr. W. F. Mathews of New York, who figured as the owner of the mare Jersey Lady and other horses raced by Al Mathews (Dan Smith), wants to be "restored to his rights on the turf." and has engaged a Montreal lawyer to accomplish his desire. There is difficulty about sgreeing as to what are Mathews' rights on the turf. The racing authorities think he has none, and it will not be easy to persuade them to a different opinion.

THREE PARISIAN STAKES FOR VANDERBILT.

At the Parisian Maisons-Laffitte track Sunday last, W. K. Vanderbilt's Lessie, chestnut filly, by Meddler, out of Hessie, won the race for the Prix de Douilly, valued at 5,000 francs. Gambaiseu III., a brown colt, 3, by Damien, out of Gracieuse, won the Prix du Monarque, and Oversight III., a bay colt, 2, by Halma, out of Oversight, the Prix Omnium.

SPIRITED RACING AT FORT ERIE TRACK.

John Carroll Easily Takes the Feature Race-Lawrence P. Daley To Be Rested.

rence P. Daley To Be Rested.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 28.—A card composed of small fields attracted a large attendance at Fort Erle this afternoon. A steeplechase over the short course was tempoon. A steeplechase over the short course was tempoon. A steeplechase over the short course was tempoon. A steeplechase over the short the race, but one our finished. Littly Wally and importinence combot our finished. Littly Wally and importinence combot of grief by blunders at different jumps and unseating being rides. When remodeling the track the steepled of the same that speed. Lights Out was always in the van and although he pecked at several jumps, held his opponents safe throughout, winning easily from Picktime. Mclivain, although blundering repeatedly, was too far in advance of the badly going Creolin to be ever seriously threatened for third place.

Edward Corrigan's sterling campaigner, John Carroll, found a soft spot in the fourth race and only had to canter the entire distance to land a winner over Severus. At that his backers spent a few anxious moments when Judge Murphy interrogated Powers, his rider, relative to some crowding that John Carroll had indulged in on the first turn and by which Estella C. suffered keenly.

J. T. Ireland's recent purchase, Jolly, made good in splendid style by winning the second race in fast time for the track. He was always in the lead and came away in the stretch to win as his rider pleased. The poor showing of Hoyle, the favorite in the race, occasioned adverse comment and resulted in the suspension of jockey Francis by the judges for incompetency.

Spunky repeated his well-carned victory of his last start at Windsor and beat a fairly good band of platers in the fifth. After many attempts on Canadian tracks, Quagga finally managed to land a purse when he beat the poorly ridden Topsy Robinson.

Wayne O. Joplin was an arrival from New York his starter for his failure to leave the post with mili-stone in the fourth race.

W. A. Smith got in from Latonia this morning with eight horses, Four of today's purses were won by horses that came here from Latonia, John Carroll, Quagga, Spunky and Jolly being the successful ones.

CANADIAN MERRY-GO-ROUND FABLES.

These new race tracks and half-mile merry-gorounds scattered throughout Ontarlo by the space killers are all imaginary. No person has been trying to buy Dufferin Park for the purposes of runing a race meeting, nor has any such project had any existence except in the newspapers. There will be no race meeting at any half-mile track in Hamilton, other than the meetings usually heldthere. The London stories of a new mile track seem to have no more substantial foundation than the other airy dreams. The London Free Press has been imposed on with several stories about the affair. One of them last week was this:

"That the running horse people of Canada ar interesting themselves in the establishing of a mile track here for the bangtails, to be erected and fitted in time for next summer, is again evidenced by the fact that William Hanrahan, secretary of the association track in Windsor, and one of the big men in horse racing in Canada, has been in the city looking over the ground with A. H. Brener and other local men who are interested.

"Mr. Hanrahan went over the ground thoroughly with Mr. Brener and seemed to consider the proposition with more than ordinary seriousness, although just what his views were after investigating thoroughly have not been made public and probablywill not be until preliminary work has been gone into more fullx."

oughly have not been made public and probably will not be until preliminary work has been gone into more fully."

Mr. Hanrahan assured the Toronto Globe last Saturday that he did not know Mr. Brener and had never seen him. Mr. Hanrahan said: "I am not thinking of building even a cinder path, let alone a mile track. I have not been in London in more than a year. So far as I am concerned, the whole thing is a pure invention, and I have so written to the editor of The Free Press."

FRENCH STEEPLECHASING IS HEALTHY.

Steeplechasing in France flourishes far better than elsewhere in Europe, and this is pretty well shown by the fact that no fewer than four owners have secured upward of $25,000 in stakes between January 1 and July 5. They are: C. Lienart, $67,-300; E. Fischoff, $67,285; E. Theibaux, $47,330, and A. Veil-Picard, $43,625. The sires to win $20,000 or more are St. Damien, $45,6300; Yellow, $32,785; Childwick, $24,140; Masque, $21,915, and St. Frusquin, $21,430. Parfrement easily heads the list of winning Jockeys with seventy-two wins to his credit.

SIGNORINETTA UNABLE TO RACE.

Though it is expected that Signorinetta, winner of the English Derby and Oaks, will be back in form before the St. Leger, which is not run until September 9 at Doncaster, she is on the shelf now. It was bad luck for Chevalier Ginistrelli that Signorinetta should have gone so badly amiss from sexual causes after her arrival at Sandown that it was impossible to run her for the Eclipse Stakes, and her absence robbed the race of not a little of its importance.

BAR NONE MAY RACE AGAIN.

While not winning a race last year, Bar None ran so well that he ranked but little if anything below the other crack two-year-olds of the year. Colin always excepted. But an injury received late in the season affected the fine son of Nasturtium and Equality so seriously that it has been impossible so far to fit him for racing. But careful attention is telling in his case and it is now hoped that he will be able to go to the post at Saratoga.

An interesting event of the Saratoga meeting will be the $7,500 Travers Stakes for three-year-olds, one mile and a quarter. August Belmont's Fair Play, winner of the Realization, will go after this prize, no doubt, but he will have to pick up a three-pound penalty, making his impost 129 pounds. Fair Play, therefore, must concede weight to such good colts as King James, Dorante, Restigouche, Sir John Johnson, Chapultepec and others.

VALLEY FARM HORSES ARE ALL WRONG.

Detroit, Mich., July 28.—The Valley Farm Stable will go from Windsor to Hamilton to lay up for repairs, Charlie Gilbert being the only horse now in racing order, and he has had a pretty busy season. It is characteristic of the vicissitudes of the turf that a stable so strong in numbers and quality at the recent opening of the season should be already practically out of business. With Denham, Glimmer, Kelpie and Ayr Water the stable had a few weeks ago the strongest combination of Province-breds that was ever sheltered in one establishment, to say nothing of the other fine prospects carrying the brown and yellow Jacket, Denham bowed a tendon, Glimmer spread a hoof and Kelpie was hurt by a fall, while a series of mishaps of various kinds put seven or eight others of the stable on the shelf also.

DUNCRAGGEN REPUTED SANFORD CRACK.

The crack two-year-old of the Sanford string at Saratoga is said to be Duncraggen, by Rockton-Rockwater. He is fast, of fine size, good disposition and is purely Sanford-bred. Both his sire and dam were raised on the Sanford Hurricana Farm at Amsterdam, N. Y. Duncraggen is in the United States Hotel, Saratoga Special, Grand Union Hotel and Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga.

TRAINER COTTON IN DIRE TROUBLE.

Seattle, Wash. July 28.—F. Nengent, the crack Salvado gelding that H. A. Cotton brought here from California to train for the Old Ned Stable, in conjunction with his own horses, Janeta and Captain Burnett, turned such a form somersault today in winning the Capitol Hill Handicap from a band of good sprinters, that Cotton and his entire racing out, the week of the conformal today in the capitol Hill Handicap from a band of good sprinters, that Cotton and his entire racing out, the week of the conformal today in the capitol Hill Handicap from a band of good sprinters, that Cotton and his entire racing out, the week of the conformal to the conformal today in the stewards. Yesterday F. Neugent was a hot favorite in a similar held and falled to show even a flash of speed with jockey Gaugel up. Today, with jockey Lycurgus as his pilot, he ran a sparkling race and won with ease at 20 to 1, which long odds were bid against him solely because of his poor performance of yesterday, the general conclusion being that the horse was far from his true form. Cotton claimed when the stewards made an inquiry this morning concerning yesterday's poor showing by F. Neugent, that he had placed a substantial bet on the horse and that he was at a loss to account for his bad race, as the horse had been working well.

Inasmuch as Cotton's horses have been notorious in and-outers, both here and at Onkland, the officials decided to hold him responsible when today's race brought matters to a crisis.

Among the horsemen there is, an inclination to blame jockey Gaugel for the fallure of F. Neugent to blame jockey Gaugel for the fallure of F. Neugent to run his race yesterday. It is pointed out that many horses that Gaugel has recently ridden have improved wonderfully in other hands. The stewards had Gaugel before them today and will devote more attention to him tomorrow. His ridde on Stoney Lee, Barney Oldfield, Dulcinea, Miss Worth and other horses, with which he should have done much better than he did, will be carefully looked into.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

Ben M., Fort Erie, Ont. The answer only referred to riding over recognized race tracks, Do not keep any records of the racing over the outside tracks referred to by you and cannot say as to what may have taken place over them. The reply was based on our own records of what has been done by jockeys over recognized tracks.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It can be stated with certainty that the Louisville spring meeting profits were about $3,000 only.

King Edward is not having what one might call a "fat" season on the English turf. Up to July 14 his horses had won $9,848.

Helmet, the Keene Disguise—St. Mildred colt, is said to have improved very much of late and has been working fast at Saratoga.

The broodmares. The Belle, by Faraday, and Royal Legend, by Ingoldsby, were bought at Windsor on Saturday last for the Valley Farm.

For the first time in its history of twenty-one years, the rich Eclipse Stakes at Sandown Park, won by Sol B. Joel's Your Majesty, had only three-year-olds for contestants.

August Belmont's stable is at Saratoga in charge of trainer John Whalen. Half Sovereign, Fond Heart, Don Diego, Madman, Rostrum, Six o'Clock and Field Mouse were in the shipment.

earn his keep. There is no better road horse on Long Island and he may be seen at Brighton Beach track every day this week between the shafts of Gwyn Tompkins' buggy.

Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., expects to win a coupl of good 'chases at Saratoga with his jumpers, Bay onet and California King, Mr. Hitchcock has no raced at Brighton Beach because he wanted to hav something for Saratoga, a track in which he is in terested pecuniarily and sentimentally.

RECORDS TO DATE OF THE HAMILTON TRACK

Considerable record changing took place in the course of the Hamilton spring meeting, new marks being established at a half mile, five-eighths of a mile, five and a half furlongs, three-quarters of a mile, one mile, a mile and a quarter. Besides this the new grass course was inaugurated with a resultant separate list of records. In jumping, three new marks were set and the Hamilton track records are now:

Went to post at 3:46. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Lights Out, a good fencer, outjumped and outran his opponents all the way, made a fast pace and held Picktime safe when the latter challenged in the stretch. Picktime was under slight restraint for the first turn of the field and moved up gamely when going to the twelfth jump, but tired in the last furlong.
